Paving Our Future through Youth Exchange

Ex-participants who are active in leadership positions in society will talk about their experiences on SWY and how these contributed to their efforts to solve social issues after participating. In this session, we invite Jose Sano Takahashi who participated in SWY11 for the first time as a Participating Youth, then became a National Leader and a program facilitator. After participating eight times in the SWY program, he now has his own company in Peru and is working with his clients such as the Japanese Embassy in Lima, Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA), and Japan External Trade Organization (JETRO). He will share how he is utilizing skills he gained from his many SWY experiences.

Breakout Session

Ex-participants will hold a session according to their special skills and interests.

1 Valentina Ardiles (SWY28, Chile)
SWY and Languages:
From Speaking to Interpreting

In this session, Valentina who is fluent in Spanish, English, and Japanese will talk about her experiences as an interpreter and how she improved her language skill.

2 Carlos Arbaiza Meza (SWY27, Peru)
Educating Our Emotions: Keeping Life's Balance

Carlos will talk about how to deal with emotions in a healthy way, improving the quality of your perspective and thoughts, allowing you to keep your integrity even at difficult times.
